

Leeds v Doncaster

05.03.22

Today Leeds welcomed top of the table Doncaster. Leeds started the game strong with good football from both sides of the pitch. Denis Pacejs going close twice for Leeds before Oliver Garbutt did a couple of great saves to keep Doncaster at bay.

Leeds then gets caught on the break and fall 1-0 behind. It's a very entertaining game of football with both sides playing some good stuff. With the game very even, Leeds get caught again and go 2-0 down. The games battle on with both teams creating chances, a penalty is then given to Doncaster against the run of play which Garbutt saves. Leeds is competing today with Myles Emmett commanding things at the back but its not Leeds's day. In the last few minutes, they get caught on the break again with an excellent finish from the Doncaster striker.

Game ends 3-0
