

MATCH REPORT LEEDS A V HULL 30.01.22

Leeds A entertained Hull on a very windy morning. Leeds wanted to continue their good form into the season. Leeds started where they left off last week pressing the ball well and creating chance after chance with Joshua Turner-Fielder and Charlie Dees have the best of them, the pressure is relentless and from a good team build up Turner-Fielder finally fires home 1-0 .

Leeds in control Nevan Maguires battling up front is making it hard for Hull to get out and he wins the ball well and fires in goal number 2.

Leeds coping well with the conditions Ben Sumpter and Jaiden Lund moving the ball well and not allowing Hull to get a hold of the game, Sumpter strikes from the edge of the area the keeper cant hold it and Lund follows up to make it 3-0.

Leeds solid all over the pitch Myles Emmett and Jude Hickson winning important challenges and keeping things tight. Leeds attack again and with the ball loose in the area Leon Wyszynski pokes home goal 4 for Leeds.

The pressure continues, Sam Bartlett with a great tackle and the putting through Denis Pacejs whose speed was no match for the Hull defense, Pacejs finds the bottom corner 5-0.

It's a frustrating morning for Hull who have no luck with Toby Gray and Logan Stanniciffe solid at the back, Leeds are not done yet, good work from Sumpter who puts through Wyszynski who fires home number 6.

A great display of how to play and control a game of football in windy conditions from Leeds today, really impressive despite the wind they excellent to watch . 6-0.
