

Wakefield 0 v Leeds 5th February 1

In form Leeds A travelled to Wakefield In a clash that would see who takes 2nd place in the league. The game was a very physical affair from the off! Leeds had the first chance when good play from Leon Wyleszinki forced a foul at the edge of the area, Charlie Dees stepped up and fired over the bar, Dees went close again when his shot hit the crossbar . It's a tight game, tough challenges coming in from both sides, the Leeds defense holding a firm line with Jude Hickson and Sam Bartlett giving their usual solid performances at the heart of the Leeds defense. Wakefield get their chances but Oliver Garbutt pulls off 2 crucial saves keeping game level. Leeds then get a goal disallowed when Hickson gets a free kick and smartly passes to Dees who finds Nevan Maguire but it's ruled offside! Jaiden Lund and Ben Sumpter battling hard in midfield trying to make things happen for Leeds with smart play but it looks like there will be no breakthrough, the games scrappy and stop-start, Toby Gray and Myles Emmett making sure Wakefield found no way through with solid performances at the back . With 1 min in the game left Lund wins the ball and finds Logan Staincliffe who brilliantly slots in the pacy Denis Pacejs who out sprints the Wakefield defense to fire home the winner in last seconds, Leeds have kept their cool under pressure and come out worthy winners today , the game is finished 0-1 to Leeds , excellent result today that keeps Leeds A in the title race
